

It's February and love is in the air. Our breeding sheds are open and foaling barn is in full swing. Hopefully some of the late winter storms won't inhibit shipments but coordination with our office will hopefully deter delivery delays due to weather. Sometimes Mother Nature doesn't help the delivery schedule, but we have the option to counter to counter semen if a traditional next day shipment looks risky with winter storms in your area.

Gumz Farms is excited to be introducing their new line of apparel cleverly named Stud Wear. Due to high demand, we will be offering a selection of caps, t-shirts, sweatshirts, jackets, and more with your favorite stallions logo on it. We are looking hard to find unique items that will appeal to everyone and new items will be added daily. Since everything is being custom ordered and designed, our items are just now arriving and we will be adding them to our website as they are received. We will have items available on the Gumz Farms website as well as on Facebook. Come see what new and fun items we have in stock and support your favorite stallion.

Babies, Babies and more babies.

With the start of foaling season upon us, we are having some exceptional foals born this season. Many of the foalings are sired by stallions standing at Gumz but we also have a good representation from outside stallions as well. Keep any eye on our nursery page on Facebook but the Gumz Farms website as well. We also encourage mare owners to send in baby pictures sired by Gumz Farms stallions so we can brag on those youngsters as well.

Just pick your flavor!

A special note to breeders: Although many of our time sensitive specials have expired, we still offer some very generous discounts. Each stallion has concessions available as well as multiple mare and repeat breeder discounts. Take time to view the "stallion specials" flyer on our website or call the office to see what kind of discounts your mare(s) can qualify for.

Prospects For Sale

If you didn't breed your mare last year or don't have a foal coming this season and need a baby fix, we have what the doctor ordered. We have a select group of broodmares offered for sale. These mares have pedigrees that we are all looking for and many are bred to the top stallions in the pleasure horse industry. 3-n-1 packages are available. All of these mares are not on our website so email or call the office for a listing of what is currently available.

Designer Foals

Gumz Farms Designer Foal Program

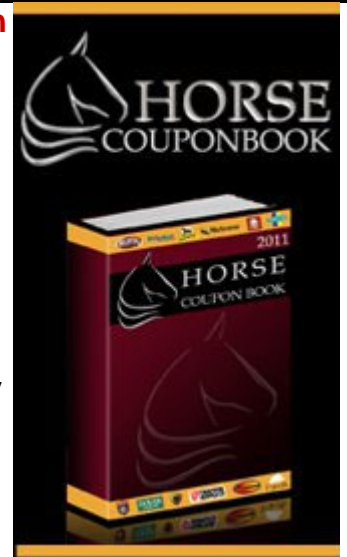

Our "Designer Foal" program is up and in full swing. Many of the donor mares that are enrolled in our program have already sold their 2011 eggs. However, we have several World and Congress champion mares available and currently in the breeding barn. These eggs are priced from $5000 and up and there is no better way to promote a young stallion or create the foal of your dreams besides "designing it".

Gumz Farms announces the participation of their Stallions in the Season of Excellence contest, hosted by Horse Coupon Book, which is giving away one free breeding to a lucky mare owner.

A SCENIC IMPULSE, ABSOLUTE INVESTMENT, CERTAIN POTENTIAL, HUNTIN FOR CHOCOLATE, IRON AGE, NO DOUBT IM LAZY, ONLY IN THE MOONLITE, PAINTED DETAIL and THESE IRONS ARE HOT have all received a minimum of 100 public votes ("Likes") and are eligible for the 2011 Season of Excellence contest which begins February 1st, 2011!!

Mare owners can submit an essay starting February 1st, 2011 about the Stallion they want to win a breeding to and why they should win. The essay with the most public votes by February 28th, 2011 will win! Additional information on submitting an essay may be found on their website www.SeasonOfExcellence.com.

Additionally, Stallions with 1,000 "Likes" will be inducted into the www.SeasonOfExcellence.com Hall of Fame as a lifetime member! Please help the Gumz Farms' Stallions become Hall of Fame Stallions by clicking the "Like" button on the Stallion's Horse Coupon Page.

To participate in the Season of Excellence contest, please follow these steps:

1. Become a fan of <http://facebook.com/HorseCoupons>;
2. Visit the "Photos" tab to browse through the Gumz Farms' Stallions (AQHA Western Pleasure Stallion & AQHA Hunter Under Saddle Stallions)
3. Click "Like" while viewing the Stallions

NOTE: If you do not see the "Like" button below, it will appear once you become a fan.

Thank you for your "Likes" which made the Gumz Farms' Stallions eligible for this contest. We look forward to reading your submitted essays during the month of February. Gumz Farms hopes you enjoy the Season of Excellence contest, hosted by Horse Coupon Book, and wishes every mare owner "good luck"!

Our article of the month is generously supplied by Kentucky Equine Research and reprinted with their permission. This article addresses the issue of Oxygen Deprivation of Foals. Although not a common discussion, this article is an important read for anyone who is foaling out their own or other's mare(s). This is one of the factors that we address in the development of our foaling barn as we do have mobile oxygen tanks available so that the foal in need can be supplemented immediately. Our foaling lab as well as our neo-natal unit is available for any emergency if necessary.
