

Where Success Begins

Thank you Mare Owners for an amazing 2011 Breeding Season. This year was great and exceeded our expectations. A special thanks to all our support staff for making this a successful season. Our sheds are officially closed but we will continue to ship semen with advanced notice. Most of our stallions are entering quarantine for frozen semen collections for Australia and the European Communities. However, we can still handle cooled semen shipments as needed.

What to Feed a Yearling with Physitis -by Kentucky Equine Research

Q: I own a 750-pound yearling Paint gelding that is showing signs of growth-related bone problems. He is outside 24/7, and is fed one flake of bermudagrass and one flake of alfalfa hay morning and night, as well as King Feed 20/20. Should I feed him the Kentucky Equine Research (KER) All-Phase ration balancer in addition to the hay? Alfalfa or timothy pellets?
