We are excited about the promotional programs and breeding plans that the Rodrocks have for him. INVESTMENT
ABSOLUTE INVESTMENT REMAINS WITH THE MCWHIRTERS/ GUMZ FARMS AFTER DISPERSAL SALE

On September 18, 2010 in Lincoln, Nebraska the McWhirters sold their herd but kept the prized stallion, Absolute Investment. Absolute Investment will continue to stand at the Kentucky Division of Gumz Farms with a new 2011 stallion service fee of $2,000. The McWhirters dispersed their herd but by keeping the major building block of that herd, they can focus on Absolute Investment's impact as a sire.

"We have spent more than 30 years building a great group of horses that brought us joy and national recognition," Carol McWhirter says. "We were ready to step away completely, but decided to set a reserve for the stallion because he is such a great breeding horse. Since his reserve price wasn't met, we will remain in the business focusing on the stallion side. His new reduced stallion service fee will enable more clients the opportunity to breed to him. We will continue to offer the 'designer genes' to those that want carefully plan their matings and now Dan and I will have more time to devote to our breeding clientele". Read All About It>>>
